

Roseann Cardinale Orlebeck

Roseann Cardinale Orlebeck and her husband, Bruce, have been married for 35 years and enjoy living in Corral de Tierra. They have three children and have been blessed with four grandchildren and are excited to welcome their fifth in August. Roseann has worked with her family business, Cardinale Moving and Storage, since she was 15 years old and is a corporate officer and the company CFO. She is proud of their award winning company (most recent award was Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce business of the year) and she has enjoyed many years working with her parents, brother and sister and one of her son's - making three generations working together.

Roseann is past president of the Rotary Club of Castroville, past Assistant Governor of Rotary District 5230, and immediate past-president of the Salinas valley Business Women's Network. She currently serves on the board of Castroville Rotary, the North Monterey County Chamber of Commerce and the Castroville Industrial Park Owner's Association. She is an active member of the Women's Council of Realtors-Monterey, the Monterey County Association of Realtors, the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce and the local chapter of the California Moving & Storage Association.

Roseann was Rotarian of the year in 2005-2006 and received the Community Service Spirit Award of North Monterey County in 2010.

She was instrumental in bringing the American Cancer Society's Relay For Life to North Monterey County where she acted as the chairperson of that event for three years, raising tens of thousands of dollars. She has donated endless hours to Ariel Theatrical by performing in their musicals on and off since 1990. Most recently was in March of 2014 where she had the principal female role in the Emperor's New Clothes performing for nearly 7000 children with two shows daily for an entire week.
